

流行病學與預防醫學研究所演講

The Challenges of Emerging Infections in the 21st Century

- Date: 2025.2.18 (Tue.)
- Time: 11:10-12:10
- Place: Global Lounge (1st floor),
College of Public Health, NTU

Dr. Wun-Ju Shieh / 謝文儒

Experience:

Deputy Chief / Medical Officer, IDPB,
CDC (1995–2020)

Dr. Wun-Ju Shieh has been a Medical Officer at the CDC since 1995, specializing in emerging infectious diseases and epidemic investigations. With over 20 years of experience, he has contributed to global outbreaks like H1N1, COVID-19, Ebola, and Zika, as well as key investigations in Taiwan, including enterovirus 71, SARS, and rabies. Stay tuned for venue updates and don't miss the chance to learn from a world-renowned expert !